Lecture 1: Monday 18th March 2019

50 Years On: What have Aboriginal people taught me about Ignatian spirituality?

Fr Brian McCoy SJ grew up in Melbourne but has spent most of his Jesuit and priestly life in the north of Australia in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. Before taking up his role as Provincial July 2014, Brian was the Director of the Tertianship Program for the Australian Jesuit Province. His PhD at The University of Melbourne was titled: Holding Men: Kanyirninpa and the health of Aboriginal men.

Lecture 2: Monday 25th March 2019

Justice and Mercy - an Ignatian look at the weightier matters of the law

Fr Justin Glyn SJ has a licentiate in canon law from St Paul University in Ottawa and was admitted to the Victorian legal profession in November 2018. Before entering the Society he practised law in South Africa and New Zealand and has a PhD in administrative and international law.

Lecture 3: Monday 1st April 2019

Ignatian Spirituality and a time of conflict

Fr Bill Uren SJ is Rector of Newman College at the University of Melbourne. A graduate of the Universities of Melbourne, Sydney, Oxford and the Melbourne College of Divinity, he has lectured in moral philosophy and bioethics at the Universities of Melbourne, Murdoch and Queensland, and has served on over a dozen clinical and research ethics committees in universities, hospitals and research institutes.

Lecture 4: Monday 8th April 2019.

Ignatian Spirituality and Social Service

Julie Edwards is CEO of Jesuit Social Services. She has over 35 years experience engaging with marginalised people and families experiencing breakdown and trauma. Julie is a social worker, family therapist and a grief and loss counsellor. She is a member of a number of national and international Jesuit commissions and working groups across areas of justice, education, social ministry and ecology.
